BRADLEY HIS BOOK

PROSPECTUS

B R A D L E Y

BRADLEY, HIS BOOK • TO BE PUBLISHED IN APRIL AND THEREAFTER TO APPEAR MONTHLY • THIS CIRCULAR IS TO CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO A LITTLE MAGAZINE OF INTERESTING READING, INTERSPERSED WITH VARIOUS BITS OF ART, AND PRIVATELY PRINTED AT THE WAYSIDE PRESS SPRINGFIELD, MASS. PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

ADVERTISEMENT Its Literature is to be the work of many clever writers, its Art the Art of Books, etcetera, especially that which finds expression in decoration. Its printing will be pleasing, and, that the illustrations may appear upon the paper for which they were designed, some three or four varieties will be used, each page appearing in at least two colors, and from that up to six. A new cover will be designed by Mr. Bradley for each number, these also to be printed in colors, each on a different style of paper. In the hope that the advertisements may be made quite interesting, they will not be taken from more than one commercial house in the same line of business. Each will be designed with much care, appearing in this magazine before publication elsewhere.

FIRST EDITION The first edition of the Magazine will consist of ten thousand copies. These will be furnished to subscribers first, after which news dealers will be supplied in turn according as their orders are received. Each order should be accompanied by check, which will be returned should the edition be exhausted.

SPECIAL EDITION There will also be a special edition of fifty large paper copies of the first number, printed on Japanese parchment, and bound in flexible Japan vellum wrappers. This edition will contain a small Poster in two colors, designed and engraved on the wood by Mr. Bradley, and printed by him on India paper. This edition will furthermore be put upon the presses, and each form printed, numbered and signed by Mr. Bradley. Twenty-eight of these copies now remain for sale at twenty dollars each.

CONTENTS OF NUMBER ONE: Frontispiece, Woman in Green, Edward Penfield; The Garden of Genius, A Poem, Nixon Waterman; Two Short Sketches, Illustrated, Richard Harding Davis; Night-Blooming Cereus, A Poem, Harriet Monroe; Edward Penfield, Artist, Will Bradley, Illustrated by Seven Originals in Color by Mr Penfield, drawn especially for this Magazine; Miniature Reproduction in Colors of Two Posters, "The Knickerbockers" and "The Acorns," Will Bradley; Book and Art Notes, Illustrated; Two Book Plates; Advertisements printed in Colors, prepared for and appearing first in this Magazine.

POSTERS There will be a Poster for each number of the Magazine. The first will be 22x60 inches, and lithographed in four colors; these to be placed at one dollar each. Subscribers, however, can obtain them, while the edition lasts, at 50 cents a copy.
